

Council Settles Dog Problem

New Ordinance Taking Effect On March 2nd.

REGULATIONS STRICT FOR DOGS AT LARGE.

A special meeting of the consideration by the Council of an ordinance "Relative to Dogs Running at Large," was held Monday evening. An ordinance accordingly was presented and carefully read and discussed and finally passed by unanimous vote.

For some time property owners and others have been annoyed by dogs running at large and causing considerable property damage, and others becoming street nuisances. Comment about dogs has been made in this paper on a number of previous occasions and we are convinced that the action by the Council will have general approval.

If the provisions of the ordinance are carried out, it's going to be just too bad for a lot of canines. For a dog to run at large it must, first, have a state license. Further it must be free from illness or infection, and, if a female, must not be in heat. It may not run upon the property of others without consent of the owners. Fighting or congregating in public places or on private property not belonging to their owner or owners is a violation.

It is the duty of any police officer of the city to impound dogs when he finds any of the provisions of the ordinance being violated. Dogs so impounded may be recovered by their owners thru prescribed methods as shown in the official ordinance as published with the Council proceedings elsewhere in this issue of the Avalanche. We respectfully urge dog owners to carefully read over the ordinance so that they may understand its provisions, and also understand ones responsibilities and his rights. These are fully explained in the ordinance.

That the City Council intends to enforce the dog ordinance there is no doubt. It takes effect March 2nd, thus giving everyone plenty of opportunity to be prepared to properly care for their dogs.

Grayling Defeats Gaylord, Winning Class C Conference

LARGE CROWD SEES ONE-SIDED STRUGGLE

Tuesday night, the first packed house in four seasons, saw a "flashier than ever" Grayling five down a "tough as ever" Gaylord quintet to the tune of 23-12.

Gaylord brought approximately two hundred supporters with them and had nearly as strong backing as the locals.

The first and second quarters were nip and tuck affairs with the lead changing hands several times. Grayling started the scoring with a short shot, but Gaylord came right back with a counter. The score at the finish of this first go was 3-5, and no one could imagine the outcome of the game. In the second period the homesteaders added three points onto their win total while the up-state boys scored one from the charity stripe to bring the score to 8-6 at half time.

Coach Cornell unleashed an attack in the third stanza that surprised the Top O' Michigan squad and it was in this go that they won the ball game by scoring 10 points to 2 for the visitors. This brought the score to 22-12 and in the final set to Grayling scored one free throw.

Gaylord's second team emerged victorious in a scrap with the local reserves by a score of 16-10. S. Jorgenson scored all but two of Grayling's ten points. Joseph accounted for the other tally.

Little praise has been given the Grayling band for their splendid cooperation. They have played at every home game this season and their music has been appreciated. It sort of puts the

Grayling Class C Conference Champions

The first championship of the basketball season is ours! And that is none other than the championship of the Northern Michigan Class C Conference. East Jordan, unable to come last Tuesday night because of cold weather, forfeited their game and made Grayling undisputed champs, with nine wins and no defeats. At Boyne City or one of the other northern cities, a banquet is to be staged and at that time a trophy is to be awarded the locals.

FARM ACCOUNT BOOKS

About 300 Farm Account Books have been distributed to farmers during the past month. This is one sign of a more healthy situation on the farms. Farmers in general hesitate to keep records if they anticipate a loss. On the other hand the records help farmers to determine the source of their losses.

An additional supply of books have been received and there is now a large enough supply on hand to do away with the memory system of records on every farm in the county. If you have not received this book, a card addressed to the County Agricultural Agent at Gaylord, stating your wish, will get you the book.

Detroit Snow Trains Arrive As Usual

STORMS LEAST EFFECTIVE IN THIS COMMUNITY

While the Kirby Travel Bureau of Detroit awaited all day Saturday and early Sunday morning for word from Grayling that the storms prohibited winter sports activities on Sunday, President Roy Trudgen stood by his post and insisted that we were ready to receive visitors.

When train leaving time arrived and Mr. Kirby gave the word that trains would run as scheduled, there arose a great shout of joy from the vast throng assembled at the Detroit depot. The trains—two of them, and one from Saginaw and Bay City—came thru without trouble except that the running time had to be slowed.

When the trains arrived with their army of passengers the latter were soon turned loose in the big winter park and it wasn't long before the skating rink and toboggan slides were sounding with the "burr of steel runners."

"It is warmer here in Grayling than in Detroit was a remark frequently heard."

The big crowd had a great time and only complained that the stay was altogether too short. The transportation of the passengers to the park and return was handled wonderfully, just as it was on all former occasions. For this we may thank Emil Giegling and Alex Atkinson, who were at the head of that important responsibility, and also the many truck and private car owners who put in every minute of the afternoon carrying passengers. And at the park, those in charge were right on the job as before, and we cannot help but be proud of the loyalty and cooperation of our citizens.

Without such dependable assistance, there would have been much delay and consequent disappointments.

Mr. Kirby says that there were many cancellations because of the newspaper reports that railroads and highways were blocked in the north. A group of 150 registrants from Midland for the Saginaw-Bay City train were unable to reach Saginaw where there were to take the train. Others too who had to drive to stations were unable to reach there because of blocked highways. Therefore there were only 681 passengers on the trains instead of the more than 1000 scheduled.

However those who were here are loud in their praise of the wonderful time they had here. And of course they are coming again.

While winter sports enthusiasts were having a great time at Grayling, our neighboring city did not fare very well. Detroit trains scheduled for Petoskey had to be cancelled and those traveling the highways were held up because of the heavy snow and blizzardly storms. According to some who were there during their carnivals and National skating events, the whole affair was a failure for the want of spectators. Several from Grayling wanted to be there but the highways between Gaylord and Petoskey were impassable.

Dist. B. B. Tournament March 5, 6, 7

The District basketball tournament to be held in the high school gymnasium, March 5, 6, 7, has nine possible entrants in the Class D ranks and it is expected that five teams will fight it out for Class C laurels.

As yet none of the schools have filed entry blanks but the probable competitors in Class D are Falmouth, Frederic, St. Mary's (Gaylord), Houghton Lake, Mio, Johannesburg, Roscommon, Fairview, and Vanderbit. St. Joe of West Branch are entered in the tourney at Standish and also West Branch high.

Those who will seek honors in the Class C division are none other than Gaylord, Lake City, Mancelona, McBain, and last but not least, Grayling.

Lake City has played in our tournament in previous years, but the last two years they have staged a tourney at home. McBain, who has played here in Class D ranks, is coming this year as a strong Class C outfit. Falmouth is a new one to us and has never been entered in competition here.

If all Class D teams decide to come, one will be eliminated and sent to the Alpena tournament.

Watch this paper for further news about the tourney.

Where Our Weather Is Enjoyed

Schubert Program Delights Audience

A program of Schubert music was presented on Monday evening at the Michelson Memorial church to the delight of an appreciative audience. The program was under the direction of Mrs. C. G. Clippert, who accompanied all of the numbers. Mr. Walter Noa, violinist of Gaylord, was the guest artist. The church choir of eighteen voices sang various songs, featuring Edward Brigham, baritone, and the ladies quartette, Mrs. Roy Milnes, Almeda Miller, Harold Jarmin, and Herbert Gothro.

- The ten vocal and instrumental numbers were:
1. March Militaire, a spirited march.
 2. Hark! Hark! the Lark.
 3. Ballet Suite, incidental music to the play, Rosamunde.
 4. Who is Sylvia?
 5. Blossom Time, an operetta based on the life of the great composer, the Love Song of which is taken from the Unfinished Symphony.
 6. The Night.
 7. Moments Musicale.
 8. Serenade, the most popular of all Schubert compositions.
 9. Unfinished Symphony.
 10. Ave Maria.

It has been a long time since Grayling has been privileged to hear the creations of a master done so beautifully and with such effect by Mr. Noa interpreted not only the melody but the spirit of Schubert. The vocal renditions brought out the true harmony and modulation, so characteristic of the great composer.

Franz Schubert was of German parentage, and was born in Austria near Vienna in 1797. His entire life was one of hardship and privation and sadness. When a mere child he showed marks of genius. When thirteen years of age he was composing sonatas and parts of symphonies and we hear his teacher exclaiming that there was nothing else he could teach the boy, for the lad has been taught of God.

Schubert never owned a piano, but was compelled to use those of his friends. When that of his painter friend was available, the musician would be delighted, but when the artist was too busy to have Schubert around, the composer would be greatly depressed.

During the few years of his life, for he died at the age of thirty-one, Schubert composed ten symphonies, six masses, twenty sonatas, and more than six hundred songs. He wrote more than a hundred of these songs in his eighteen year, as many as eight original creations in one day. He was a lover of the poet Goethe and set more than eighty of the poet's poems to music. The greater a poem, the greater would be the music.

Because he was true to certain standards of excellence, Schubert was not popular in his day, but years later all Europe was singing the praises of the songs written by the composer who was long since dead. Schubert did not live to hear his greatest symphony, in C major, played. He did not live to know that Goethe finally came to appreciate him. Although he and Beethoven lived for thirty years in the same city, Beethoven did not appreciate him until it was too late when the great Beethoven said: "Truly, Schubert had a spark of the divine fire." Liszt, the famous composer helped to present Schubert's works to the world, declaring that he was the "most poetic of all musicians." If but fifty of his greatest songs had been written, Schubert would still deserve his place of immortality as the greatest song writer of all time and all countries.

The entire community is indebted to the Woman's Club for sharing this program and to Mrs. Clippert, Mr. Noa and the members of the choir for bringing to them the beautiful interpretations of the art and exquisite charm of an old master.

Rev. Flory made the program more interesting by announcing the numbers and giving an interpretation of the selections, together with remarks on the works of the great composer.

FAMILY NIGHT FEB. 20TH

The Family Night program for February will be at the Michelson Memorial church on Thursday, the 20th. The pot-luck supper will start promptly at 6:30, followed by the special feature which will be a Washington Party, commencing at eight o'clock. Every one is invited. If you cannot come to both the supper and the feature, come to one or the other.

The family Night next week promises to be a happy occasion. The Ladies Aid society will present a dramatic sketch portraying George and Martha Washington.

Snow Trains Bring Over 5,000 People

A summary of the number of people coming to Grayling from Detroit during the winter, for winter sports reveals that the snow trains have brought us over 5000 people from that city alone. Besides those there have been two trains from Saginaw and Bay City.

The Kirby Travel Bureau reports the number of passengers for each train as follows:

January 12	538
January 19	1023
January 26	1094
February 2	987
February 9	881
February 16 (estimated)	625
February 22 (tickets sold thus far)	800
Total	5748

On the last three trains there were between three and four hundred cancellations, due to the sub-zero weather thruout the state and the publicity given it in the newspapers. However those who did come were rewarded with very good weather here and all had a fine time. In fact the weather here was better than it was in Detroit.

Besides the two trains scheduled to come here next Sunday from Detroit, there will be a special train from Flint carrying General Motors employees.

Windstorm Company In Splendid Shape

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Michigan Mutual Windstorm Insurance Company of Hastings was held at the home office in that city January 15.

The following officers were reelected: L. W. Sunday, president; Guy E. Crook, vice-president; E. A. Parker, secretary-treasurer. The directors were reelected. The 15 directors are located about the state so that nearly every section of Michigan is represented on the directorate.

Officers' and auditors' reports show the company to be in splendid financial position, with a fine increase in volume of insurance in force and an increase of over six thousand in membership.

The excellent reputation this company has enjoyed for the past fifty years and more for fair and equitable adjustment of claims and their prompt payment of losses, have made this year's fine record possible.

A large corps of representatives and capable adjusters enables this old company to render a real service to the property owners of Michigan. During these years of severe windstorms throughout the state it is sound business policy to carry ample cyclone insurance in a company that has rendered such a desirable service to its members as this company has done.

"Jazz Regiment," A Military Chorus

40 LOCAL YOUNGSTERS TO TAKE PART

School Auditorium Friday Night.

The people of Grayling are again to be favored with a presentation by the Robinson Dance Studio, Traverse City, when "The Jazz Regiment," a sensational musical revue will take place Friday night, February 14th, at the School Auditorium.

The Robinson Studios presented a similar entertainment here last Spring and those who were there will recall what a delightful affair it was. At that time the talent was brought here from Traverse City. Now it is different; our own kiddies will put on the program. And you're going to be surprised at the splendid talent that has been developed here since that time, due to the successful training by Mr. Robinson and his assistants.

It is promised that there will be a barrage of songs, a barrage of laughs and the booming rhythm of dancing.

40 Youngsters Take Part. Except for a few pupils who will be from Traverse City, there will be 40 kiddies in the revue. Many of these are little tots and, according to reports, they are not going to be the least of the attractions, and we are promised many surprises from our youngsters.

The affair is being sponsored by the Grayling Kiwanis Club, which will participate in the proceeds. The work of the Club in sponsoring the local Boy Scouts organization requires revenues to carry on this fine work and it is hoped there will be a good attendance. Those who attend will enjoy a fine entertainment and also assist in a very noble cause.

Admission is 35c for adults and 15c for children. The local children having part in the program are as follows:

Former Well Known Resident Dies

The Seattle Times of recent date announced the death of a former old Grayling resident as follows:

Thirteen days after he and his wife, Solveig, had celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, Ingemar Arnbjornson, 87-year-old retired carpenter, died yesterday at his home, 6147 28th Ave. N. W.

Mr. Arnbjornson, well-known figure in Hawaii, where he had resided thirty-two years, succumbed to a heart ailment after an illness of less than a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnbjornson were hosts to scores of old friends when they celebrated their anniversary January 8. Mr. Arnbjornson appeared in good health then.

Mr. Arnbjornson was born in Iceland, and in 1880 went to Denmark, where he learned the carpentry trade. He came to the United States in 1882 and settled in Grayling Mich. returning to Iceland four years later to marry and bring his bride to America.

The couple resided in Grayling until 1904, when they came to Seattle. They had lived here since. Mr. Arnbjornson was a member of Occidental Lodge No. 72, F. & A. M.

Besides his widow, Mr. Arnbjornson is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Thora Hines of Seattle and Mrs. C. H. Carter of Los Angeles, and a son, Karl Arnbjornson of Ketchikan, Alaska.

Comrade John Erkes is busy helping ex-service men to fill out their applications for the Soldiers bonus.

Well Buddy, did you join the American Legion when you came to town or did you forget?

Thursday evening, Feb. 13, there will be a special meeting of the Drum & Bugle Corps and all members are requested to be present; this means everyone.

All members of the American Legion watch for your notice on the next party to be held at Legion Hall. The losers of the membership drive are going to do the work this time.

OWENS—CHRISTENSON

Saturday evening, February 8, Miss Anna Christenson, daughter of Mrs. Conrad Christenson, became a bride or Mr. Stanley Owens, at a very pretty ceremony performed by Hans Petersen, Justice of the Peace. The marriage took place at 6:30 o'clock at the residence home.

The bride was very lovely in a gown of pounce blue with which she wore black accessories. Her bouquet, a gift of her sister, Miss Lorraine Sharp, was of pink and white carnations and white snapdragons. Miss Sharp, her sister and only attendant, chose for the occasion a gown of yellow georgette with black accessories.

The groom was attended by Henry Anman, of Saginaw. Following the ceremony, the bridal party, consisting of fourteen guests, gathered at the dining room of the Fischer hotel where they enjoyed a nicely appointed lunch, with Mrs. Christenson presiding as hostess. Decorations were carried out in colors of pink and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens will be at home to their friends at their apartment at the Conrad Christenson home. The young couple has the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends.

HERE'S SOME INSIDE POLIT-ICAL DOPE

It was our privilege Monday to be a guest at a dinner honoring J. F. Essary of the Baltimore Sun, and dean of the Washington big newspaper correspondents. Talking from a non-partisan standpoint, the inside information which he passed out is interesting. Among his many other opinions are the following: Pres. Roosevelt has passed the peak of his popularity, but if the election was held now, he still could not be defeated; Hoover is "boiling over" to run again, but will not get the nomination and could not be elected; the depression would have come, no matter who was in office or who was elected in 1932; Pres. Roosevelt now realizes that the brain trust was a disappointment; Landon is now the strongest republican man; Borah hasn't a chance for the nomination; Pres. Roosevelt and Al Smith are both master showmen; the Townsend plan is slipping; there will be no new party formed—and no inflation.—Joe Haas in the Holly Herald.

POTATO CONTROL

A number of people have made an inquiry about the Potato Control Act. The potato program was not a part of the A.A.A. flood that washed down to gully on January 6 when the Supreme Court announced their decision. However, a bill is now before Congress for the repeal of the Potato Act, together with other bills which were a part of the A.A.A. set-up but which were not declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court decision of January 6.

Royal Whitehall Palace

Where Henry VIII Married

Until the eighteenth century the royal palace of Whitehall occupied most of the land between Charing Cross and Westminster. Whitehall was known as a place where Cardinal Wolsey possessed it, and not until it passed into the hands of Henry VIII was it known as Whitehall. It was when Wolsey fell from his greatness in 1529 that Henry VIII seized his property and converted it into a palace. For more than 150 years Whitehall was the chief residence of the court in London. It was there that Henry VIII married Anne Boleyn in 1533.

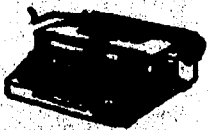

In later years Queen Elizabeth maintained the grandeur established by her father. In front of this palace Charles I was executed in 1649. Charles II made it a scene of revelry and intrigue. James II fled from Whitehall in 1688. The only part saved from the fire of 1696 was the banquet hall, which is now the museum of the United Service Institution. After the destruction of Whitehall the court moved to St. James palace. The British court is still known as "the Court of St. James."

As usual the members and their guests enjoyed playing games, following which they were served a lovely lunch by the committee in charge. Prizes were won by Mrs. James Sherman, Mrs. Floyd Taylor, Elmer VanNatter, and Mrs. Carrie Feldhauser.

FREDERIC SCHOOL

There was no school Thursday and Friday of last week due to the fact there was so much snow the school bus was unable to make its trip. School was resumed on Monday however, although the bus was unable to travel some of the cross roads of its trip. Classes were all small and we hope all can be in attendance soon. We also hope no more severe blizzards sweep through this country for awhile.

The Quint D League basketball trophy was brought a little closer to Frederic last Friday night when Johannesburg won a close battle over Alba. The game was one of the most exciting and sportsmanlike ever played. The score was tied at the end of every quarter. It stood at 17-17 at the end of the game. At the end of the first overtime it stood at 19 all, and it was not until the last seconds of the second overtime period that Johannesburg finally forged ahead to win, 21 to 20. Frederic had no game Friday night so about 40 from Frederic went over to Johannesburg to see the game and all seem entirely satisfied with it.

We have just one more home basketball game left this year and that is Friday, Feb. 14. Wolverine comes to Frederic and as the percentages now stand all Frederic has to do is to defeat Wolverine and the trophy is ours. We are hoping to see a large crowd that night because we want that trophy and we need everyone's support to get it.

Frederic lost its second class D game Monday night of last week when Houghton Lake came up and defeated us 10 to 14. Our boys did better the second half but the 6 to 10 lead of the first half was too much to overcome. The Frederic second team also lost.

The Home Economics class is certainly putting on the hot lunches. They are doing well for beginners, only scorched the soup once. That was because one of the class said she liked hers well done.

The Senior class is planning on selling candy at the basketball game Friday night.

The Seniors and Juniors are thinking of a class play that each intends to stage soon after the basketball season is over.

A lunch sponsored by the Athletic association was enjoyed by the basketball players, with Mr. Lewis and Mrs. Beach also present.

Everyone present at the game Monday night had a real laugh when the married men played the single men. Mr. Beach played as guard and had a Miss to guard. His "man" got away for 8 points and the fellows have been razzing him all week.

The Manual training class is doing some excellent work. We have started making some interesting things now such as book-racks, table ends, table lamps, and wall shelves. We have one girl in the class and she is one of the best painters you have ever seen.

We have four more members in 4-H Handicraft club this week. One of them is in third year work. That gives us a total of 21 members.

We are all hoping to have won another game by next week so we may keep the trophy. See you Friday night.

Men Must Work To Hold Jobs

WPA employees discharged for shirking or misconduct will not be re-employed by the Works Progress Administration or any other government agency, State Administrator Harry L. Pierson warned WPA workers this week.

The warning followed instructions received from Administrator Harry L. Hopkins ordering WPA officials to suspend without pay or fire workers guilty of these offenses. The order has been transmitted to WPA district directors.

Reports have been received that in certain instances a small proportion of the workers have detracted from the efficiency of projects by their unwillingness to deliver a fair day's work coupled with a belief that their employment could be continued regardless of their attitude, Hopkins' order said.

Pierson indicated that the order is not expected to apply to many among the 95,000 Michigan workers.

"We have had our eyes on a very small minority of unwilling workers from the beginning of the program," he said. "These will be weeded out. We expect as conscientious service from our employees as would be rendered to any regular governmental agency or a private employer. Habitual and intentional shirking cannot be tolerated."

"I am satisfied, however, that the vast majority of our men are willing to do a full day's work and are glad of the opportunity to receive a pay check."

Pierson added that the WPA four day work week, recently inaugurated, would considerably benefit workers, particularly in rural areas, by allowing time for seeking regular employment and permitting addition to incomes through work at home or on part-time jobs.

The Luxury of Crime

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

THE taxbill here (it comes each year along about this time), a bill for what? Well, quite a lot will go to pay for crime.

No goods we take, no laws we break, no evil path pursue, we tote no guns—we're just the ones who pay for those who do.

We need no ball, police or jail, no courthouse on the square where men are tried, but those outside must pay for people there. In cells they sit and do their bit and think it quite a chore, and put away three meals a day that we are paying for.

We're just the great (in ev'ry state) majority of men who day and night live fairly right, without police or pen.

We need no laws or courts, because we never climb a wall—

We could go on from dawn to dawn without a law at all.

In mills we toil, or plow the soil, a living try to win,

Give little time to thoughts of crime—and then the bill comes in.

I sometimes think that those who wink at crime have failed to see,

To folks like us who labor thus, it's just a luxury.

Train And Auto Collisions In 1935

Lansing—Fifty-three vehicles crashed into the sides of trains in Michigan in the first half of 1935, killing 8 persons and injuring 95 others, according to figures just issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission and tabulated by the Michigan Railroad Employees and Citizens League.

In addition, trains in this state in the same period hit 73 vehicles, 35 deaths and injuries to 70 persons resulting.

Of the 1625 train-vehicle collisions in the United States in the first half of last year, 599 or 37% involving 117 killed and 905 persons injured, resulted when the vehicles smashed into the sides of trains. Uniquely, 24% or 145 of these crashes involving a third of the fatalities occurred in daylight.

Of the 1026 crashes where trains hit vehicles, in which 494 persons were killed and 1157 others injured, 680 occurred in the daylight, twice as many as after dark.

Between 4 and 5 p. m. seems to have been the favorite hour to crash into trains and from midnight to 1 a. m. to be struck by them and Saturday, with 19% of the total, the favorite day for both types of crashes.

Where trains were hit by vehicles 61% of these happened in clear weather and 32% at crossings guarded by watchmen or gates or signal-marked, and in 65% of the cases where trains hit vehicles conditions were clear and in 36% of these cases the crossings were guarded or marked.

Swedish Chemist, Nobel, Discoverer of Dynamite

In 1866 the Swedish chemist, Nobel, discovered that when nitroglycerin was mixed with a white mineral powder known as fuller's earth a cheesy solid was formed which was as powerful an explosive as nitroglycerin but much less sensitive to shock. He named this product dynamite, a name now generally applied to a number of mixtures of nitroglycerin with inert solids.

A few years later, states a writer in the Chicago Tribune, it was found that gun cotton, unlike cotton, dissolves in certain solvents. On evaporation of the solvent the gun cotton first sets to a jelly and finally to a hard solid like celluloid. When mixed with certain modifying materials the jelly can be molded into grains of any desired size.

Knowing that nitroglycerin was improved by soaking it up in a solid, and that gun cotton was improved by softening it with a liquid, it occurred to Nobel during the 1880s to use nitroglycerin as a solvent for gelatinizing gun cotton. The resulting material, blasting gelatin, is one of the most powerful explosives used in peace-time activities.

By treating carbolic acid or toluene with the nitrating acid mixture there are obtained respectively picric acid and TNT.

Teeth, Are Not White
Novellists' talk of heroines with "pearly white" teeth, but no human being ever had teeth that were white, or anything like white, says the Milwaukee Journal.

Examine your own against a sheet of white paper and you will see how true this is. More than that you will make the odd discovery that your teeth are not all the same color. The first artificial teeth were made white, and dentists were obliged to stain them; nowadays they have no trouble of that kind, for they have no fewer than 80 different shades from which to choose and there is no tooth in the world that cannot be perfectly matched. The variety in shape is equally wide. In all, the dentist has a choice of something like 2,000 different shapes. Artificial teeth are made of a special porcelain. Before this was discovered they were sometimes carved out of solid ivory.

Washington Notes And Comments

By
Congressman Roy O. Woodruff
Tenth Michigan District.

Washington has been experiencing the most severe winter weather in the history of the Weather Bureau. The Potomac River is frozen over all the way to Chesapeake Bay for the first time. Tangier and Smith Islands in the Bay with their populations of hundreds of fishermen and their families, have been isolated and it has been necessary to supply food and medicines by airplane. Since the fall of 15 inches of snow on Friday last, flying conditions became such as to make it necessary to attempt to reach the islands over the ice.

In this attempt, one Maryland State Policeman lost his life and five others, including Major E. B. Gerry, Superintendent of the State Police, became unconscious from exhaustion and exposure, but were rescued in time to save their lives.

The fall of snow was so heavy that it derailed the Norfolk and Western passenger train near Norfolk, without loss of life however. Conditions existing here are reminiscent of those days in February, 1922, when, due to a heavy fall of snow, the roof of the Knickerbocker Theatre caved in and 100 people lost their lives.

The weather man has just announced another blizzard is on its way.

In a statement just released, William Green, President of the American Federation of Labor announces there are still 11,401,000 people unemployed, and that the number on relief has not been substantially reduced.

The Committees of the House and Senate have been working on legislation to replace the defunct AAA and in each instance have reported bills without public hearings. These bills were drafted behind closed doors and have been laid in the laps of the two houses of Congress with instructions to pass them without delay.

It is the opinion of Senators Norris and Borah that this proposed legislation embraces the same constitutional objections as the AAA, because while ostensibly the purpose of the bill is to bring about flood control and build up the fertility of the soil, the real purpose is control of the production of agricultural products which the Supreme Court has said is not within the authority of Congress to do. Regardless of whether this bill is constitutional or not, it will be put upon the statute books, where it will be possible to submit it to a test in the courts before that.

The intensive study given the measure by Senator Borah, together with his preliminary conclusion that it is unconstitutional indicated the farm problem might figure in his bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

The Ways and Means Committee will shortly be called together to provide revenues necessary to raise approximately $500,000,000 to meet the payments to the farmers contemplated by this legislation. As a member of this committee, it is my intention to do whatever I can to see that such taxes as are legislated be as lightly as possible upon the general public. I shall cooperate to this end, even though I conclude finally that the farm bill is unconstitutional, because, regardless of whether it is or not, it will at least temporarily, be the law, money will be raised from taxes regardless of what the court finds, and this tax burden should rest as lightly as possible upon the shoulders of those least able to bear them.

The so-called supplemental deficiency bill, carrying appropriations of money to enable the Federal Government to fulfill the provisions of the Social Security Act of last July in the matter of contributions to States having old age pension laws, has finally passed both houses of Congress and is at the White House for the Presidential signature.

Of the total provided for old age assistance contributions nearly one million dollars has been allotted by the Social Security Board for a six months' period to the State of Michigan. When this sum is finally deposited with the State Treasurer at Lansing, which should be by the 15th of February, the Michigan Old Age Assistance Bureau will be in a position to increase the old age benefits already awarded by the State.

PATTY WENT TO SCHOOL TODAY

By ANNE CAMPBELL

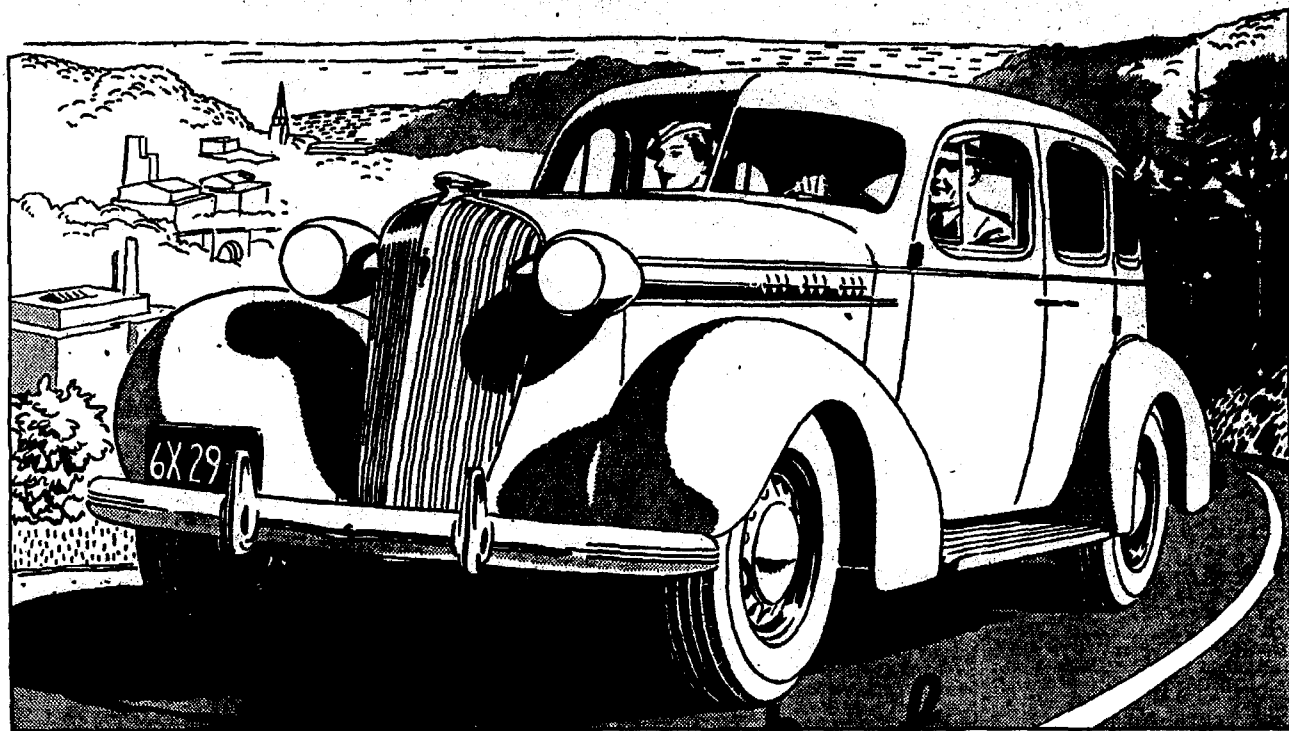

PATTY went to school today
It is lonely on our street,
No small girl to smile my way,
No bright curls and twinkling feet.

All her playmates are in school,
Barry, Phil and little Nan—
It was noisy, as a rule,
On our street till school began.

Sometimes in the afternoons,
When they took their naps at three,
There were no bright baby tunes,
And no voices calling me.

Now the morning breeze is cool,
And September's sky is gray,
All the sunshine is in school,
Patty went to school today!

Camp News

CAMP HIGGINS LAKE

Lieut. L. A. Bleck, transportation officer from Camp Custer headquarters, has been sent to this organization on detached service to carry on his duties out of this camp. Prospects are that his temporary headquarters here will be more or less permanent.

During the second half of January it would appear that a considerable number of ice fishermen are at it merely for the sport of fishing. Data being gathered by the creel census crews, which Chief Foreman Gerred reports are working on Higgins and Marquette lakes, reveals that only 187 legal sized fish were caught, whereas the number of fishermen contacted by members of the creel census crews was 348.

Foreman E. F. Dutton is constructing deer traps to be used in the Crawford game refuge. It is planned to attempt to trap 150 deer and transfer them to the Little Manistee and Butterfield swamps, where they will be released. The purpose of this project is to relieve the heavy concentration of deer in the Crawford refuge where the cover is heavily overbrowsed in many places.

A number of enrollees in this camp are making applications to the near future for junior assistant to technician. A number of vacancies that are anticipated in the ECW personnel in the future are to be filled by enrollees who make ratings on these tests.

Educational Advisor L. B. Merritt conferred with H. D. Mills of the forestry service at Gaylord last week regarding coordination of the technical service in educational activities in the CCC camps. The forestry personnel is planning to do its utmost to cooperate in educational activities.

Construction on the new post exchange in the back of barracks three is progressing nicely. Cedar is used in the construction and a very pleasing appearance will result. Undoubtedly when completed, Camp Higgins Lake will have one of the best looking canteens in the country.

Chaplain J. L. Connolly wrote in defense of CCC work projects in the Sunday edition of the Detroit Times. The story was a rather decent criticism of Orrin Alden Demass in that publication that forestry projects, particularly in this area, were resulting in game leaving the vicinity for lack of food and shelter.

In the near future freshman courses for credit will be available free of charge from the University of Michigan extension division to enrollees who are high school graduates, and if a sufficient number are interested it is expected a resident supervisor reimbursed by the WPA will be available. Courses in History, Mathematics, French, German, Latin, Mechanical Drawing, Geography, and Sociology have been prepared, and mechanical drawing can be taken on a non-credit basis. Courses in forestry and plane surveying are in preparation.

CAMP AUSABLE

Twenty enrollees shovelled snow and grubbed stumps so the snowplow could get through and clear the way for school children to get to a small school house between Camp Ausable and Lovell. The work was done during off hours on Sunday.

Rumors reached Camp Ausable of a family snowbound in their home east of camp, Sunday. Enrollees Kellogg and Jolascinski reached the marooned family via skis and found a sick baby. Plans were made to aid them and get supplies to them.

The headquarters building improvements have been completed. The lower part of the walls have been covered with cedar panels and the upper with buff colored celotex.

Renovation of the Hospital has been started. A new flooring, finished new window casements and door with glass are among the improvements in progress.

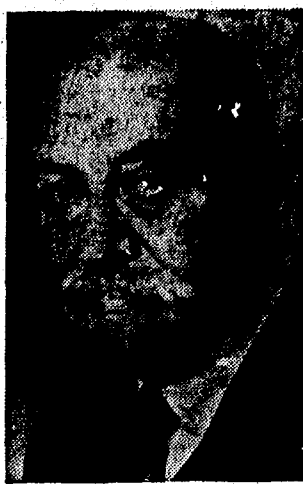

A. K. Braidwood, Chief Foreman, has been transferred to Camp Higgins Lake. Emerson Cave formerly of Presque Isle Camp and Johannesburg is taking over the responsibilities of the Chief Foreman at Camp Ausable.

A. T. Washburn, Assistant Attorney General in charge of Conservation legal matters will give a lecture on Conservation at Ausable this week.

Enrollee Wise was the winner of the straight pool tournament and McGee of the rotation. Prizes were 25 cents each in trade at the post exchange.

Paint Once Great Luxury
Paint in earliest Colonial times was mainly a luxury, antiquarians have recently discovered. At first crudely mixed paint, inspired by the Indian red paint derived from clay, enhanced the appearance of room panelling or floor. When mahogany for cabinet work came into use, homemade furniture was often painted brick red in imitation of the expensive tropical wood.

Gives Two Million

Lucius Nathan Littauer, glove manufacturer and former representative in congress, is establishing a graduate school of public administration at Harvard through a gift of $2,000,000. The manufacturer cites as his aim the training of educated men for public service, and to "raise the level of American life."

THE VANISHING COIN

MAKING a coin vanish would seem to be a feat of difficult legerdemain. It can be accomplished, however, in a very simple manner, without resort to long practice or the need of expert skill. The magician begins by showing a few coins on the palm of his left hand. He picks up a small one—say a dime—with his right hand, letting the larger coins lie open in his left.

The right fingers perform a rubbing motion. The small coin melts completely from view. The magician, not caring to lose more money, puts the remaining coins in his pocket.

The magician does not pick up the small coin from the left hand. He only pretends to do so. Actually, he slides a larger coin over the small one. People, seeing the little coin gone, think the right hand has it, but the small coin went into the pocket with the others. The rubbing motion with the right fingers was only an illusion.

This new evening gown is an emerald green taffeta creation, with ribbon sash in the same tone, tufted bodice, bustle-back and winged shoulders. It was modeled by Miss Beatrice Kunhart at a charity fashion show in New York.

DEPT. OF STATE

STATE NEWS BULLETIN

Plate Applications Show Carelessness

Current figures of the Department of State show that practically every fifth application for 1936 automobile license plates contains an error of some sort.

This condition is not the fault of the managers of the branch offices of the Department of State nor of their clerks. Each application is carefully checked but when "rush" days occur there is not sufficient time for a detailed check of each application submitted, with the result that errors sometimes pass unnoticed. A recent typical "rush" day showed that a total of 33,239 applications for plates and half-year permits or "stickers" was forwarded to the state capital from branch offices, and that about 1,000 had to be segregated for further checking.

A former Secretary of State once estimated that the errors made by the tax-payers cost the state about $50,000 annually because of the necessity for involved investigation and other similar activities. Naturally, the errors made by motorists in making out their license applications would make up a large portion of this.

People who write their "signatures" rather than their names cause grief; others, in writing long serial or engine numbers on opposite portions of an application, will become confused. Others fail to furnish necessary information. In the meantime, of course, they have their plates and the state has the application which must be held up for study and investigation. These errors also cause delay in the return of titles to the applicants.

AMERICAN GUIDE

The United States government is to publish an "American Guide" in five regional volumes which is designed to meet the need of a comprehensive guide to the United States arranged by states, cities, counties, and communities. Its purpose is to provide residents of communities, tourists, students, authors, and research workers with an inclusive picture of the scenic, historical, cultural, recreational, and industrial resources of the country. Since it will supplement but not supersede road guides and other private publications it is non-competitive and non-commercial.

As supervisor of the Federal Writers Project of this county, I have been asked to appoint volunteer associates to gather information for this guide, and I would like a few public spirited citizens of this county who can spare just a few hours time for the benefit of their county to get in touch with me, and I will send them instructions on how to collect information for this guide and the necessary materials needed.

For further information write, R. O. Frontuto, Federal Writers Project, Box 226, Lake City, Mich.

best to call the department as a precaution.

Among the Clerks

(By J. Wellington Bumsted)

Numerous comments have been made on the "house hunting" item of last week and have brought to light various other romances which had otherwise escaped the eye. According to reports—Grayling youth is all the more rapidly being obsessed with the rather attractive idea of geraniums in the kitchen and "a table set for two!"

Once again wedding bells are to peal forth in Grayling—and in the very near future. It seems that one of our own flock has decided that two can live more cheaply than one so she has decided to say "yes" to the young man—and the great event is scheduled for Saturday next.

As the result of a Saturday evening party, various ladies are bubbling enthusiastic over the dramatic abilities of Mable Isenhauer. Our Mable gave an A-1 performance of Shakespearean merit and from henceforth will be much in demand as a professional entertainer.

George Burrows is back in town and behind the counter again; looking none the worse for his several week's sojourn in Flint. From his happy expression it looks as though George is mighty glad to be back once more.

Because of poor health, Art
May has resigned his job as waiter at the Hanson Cafe. He made a keen clerk and we are sorry to have him leave us. His position is being nicely held down by the youthful Harold Smith, who has worked off and on during the rush for some time.

STEALING SCHOOL COAL

Grayling, Mich.,
Feb. 12th, 1936.

Mr. O. P. Schumann,
Grayling, Mich.
Dear Mr. Schumann:
I have a little article I wish you would publish in this week's issue if you will; it is in regard to someone helping themselves to the schoolhouse coal last Thursday evening.

It is a cinch it was very cold
last Thursday night and we do not want any of our neighbors to freeze to death, but it would be much better for them to help themselves to the Beaver Creek school coal in daylight, than we might think they were just borrowing it.

Grayling Gone To Town On Winter Sports

Former State Senator Chester M. Howell of Chesaning, editor of the Chesaning Argus, who, with his family, were here for the winter sports carnival, on his return gave the affair a writeup in his newspaper. In it he gives the local editor a lot of credit that it would be hardly fair for us to accept. Anyway we hope that we at least had some part in the building up of our winter sports.

It is good to hear the comments of outsiders and we reprint Mr. Howell's article in full. It reads as follows:

Cold nippy wind—thousands milling 'round, some bottle, here and there on the ground; zip, goes another daring ski rider down the huge chute—hundreds skating—girls and boys garbed in snow suits and ski suits, all the colors of the rainbow—Oscar Schumann, clever publisher of The Grayling Avalanche, here and there meeting folks; a genuine smile that won't come off, on his face—satisfied with results and he should be because he is the main spring in the machinery that has put over the snow carnival—15,000 people jammed a town that measured 2,023 souls last year (official count). The smart Mr. Kirby of Kirby travels sold on the idea of snow trains and making real dough on 'em—three trains, two from Detroit and one from Saginaw, Bay City—news hounds and picture men from as far away as Cincinnati and south points—Pathe taking shots—Grayling, Mich., on the job and after 11 long years of patient clamor to the outside world HOW IT IS POSSIBLE TO PUT OVER A WINTER SPORTS program. And the show is still going on.

Go Up And See For Yourself

And—if you have not been to Grayling in the past few weeks and can, well take a run up there and see for yourself. The answer to careful planning and a vision that will NOT BE LICKED.

Sunday, we took the Missus and Jack and Tom, the members of the family who are home and filled up the bus and rode over summer cleaned and perfect highways to Grayling.

Wow, what a jam of folks.

Wow, what a riot of colors.

Wow, how folks entered into the spirit of the thing and went to town in their good time.

All happy, faces all smiles, in spite of the nippy wind that rode right through you.

All sorts and imaginations of suits—gals garbed in elegant snow suits, stores in Detroit and other Michigan cities sold out of snow suits and heavy socks, out of skis, out of toboggans.

About "Suicide Sal."

Our Tom, the 10 year old hopeful wants to know all about Suicide Sal the big world's champion toboggan as the publicity out of Grayling said.

Asked Oscar Schumann and he said "Suicide Sal" was chained at the top of the big hill, it has steel runners and it runs like Bill H— when let go on the iced runways.

Tom, of course, wanted to ride on it, so did Jack but Oscar told it was too dangerous. Value of publicity shown in this "Suicide Sal" yarn, it appeals to the imagination.

Restaurants jammed with folks. Shoppenagons Inn packed to the doors, reaping a harvest.

The Chamber of Commerce of Grayling put the thing over and

ENTERTAINS WITH VALENTINE PARTY

Mrs. Hurl Deckrow was hostess to about thirty ladies at a Valentine party at her home Friday evening.

Valentine decorations played a prominent part in the color scheme. A huge Valentine made of cellophane and lace hung in the arch, and this being illuminated, cast a most cheerful glow over the merry-makers.

Bunco was enjoyed with high score being won by Mrs. Kenneth Clise; low score going to Mrs. Frank Serven.

The big feature of the evening was the "Radio Broadcast" from Station "B. U. N. K." This was in form of a Major Bowes amateur hour, all guests taking part. The home talent display would have surprised even the Major had he been "tuning" in. It was a very difficult task of choosing the winners.

The judges were Mrs. Carrie Feldhauser, Mrs. Sherman Neal and Mrs. Wm. Moshier. Miss Olive Ole (Miss Mabel Isenbauer) and Miss Twiddleiddle (Mrs. Floyd Taylor) were chosen as the stars of the evening.

A Valentine box was opened and everyone received a token of St. Valentine cheer. A delicious lunch was then served.

With the Music Goes Round & Round and an "Airtie" from the Major Bowes (Pro tem) ringing in their ears all departed, hoping soon of an opportunity to appear again before the "Mike" and try their luck at radio entertaining.

Oscar Schumann was back of it all and he wears a smile of real satisfaction, a small town publisher who kept the faith, encouraged the town folks to get along with him and now the town is cashing in and how and we think the Cheboygans, the Alpenas and the Petoskeys, etc., will have to fight real hard if they grab off any of this winter sports glory for Grayling has hit and how.—By Chet. Howell in his Chesaning Argus.

Drug Store Will Sell Medicine at 10c For Two Days

Anyone May Buy; Store Prepares for Crowd Saturday; Offer Unheard of Before in Grayling.

If you were told that you could get high-quality medicine for 10c, it would sound impossible, wouldn't it? And that others have paid a dollar or more for similar medicines—indeed, it seems unbelievable. Yet it is all true, and this offer is being made for the first time in Grayling for two days only, Friday and Saturday this week, by The Mac & Gidley, Rexall Drug Store.

Why Offer Is Made

Because we believe it is only fair that everyone who suffers should have a chance to try the medicine first to see if it will help them before they pay the full price, and because we believe 20 percent of the people of Grayling need the medicine we offer.

This is not a "cure-all," but the new, scientific medicine, called Indo-Vin, that has helped nearly all who have taken it. Therefore, we offer each person one introductory bottle for 10c (Friday and Saturday ONLY) because we believe those who are benefited will keep on using it. The regular full-size price of the medicine is $1.25.

What It Will Do

Indo-Vin will cleanse your bowels gradually and thoroughly without pain and griping.

It will bring out gases and intestinal impurities which may have been in your system causing you days, weeks or even months of misery.

It will help make the digestive organs sweet and clean, relieving headaches, biliousness, dizzy feelings; also helps avoid accumulation of lazy, drowsy, worn-out ulcers of impurities in the blood streams and kidneys.

It will aid in clearing up skin eruptions caused by impurities in the digestive organs, helping to overcome sallow "muddy" complexion.

Indo-Vin will make your STOMACH, LIVER, and BOWELS more active, build you up in general and make you LOOK, ACT and FEEL like a different man or woman.

Now, whether or not it will help you as it has thousands of others—whether it will end your suffering in a day or week—remains to be seen. But in light of what it has done for others, it is surely a mistake not to try it for 10c—fraction of its actual value. This offer is good Friday and Saturday ONLY.

How To Get It

To get your first bottle for 10c (Friday and Saturday ONLY) bring coupon to our store. Our out-of-town readers may send coupon with 10c (stamps or coin) to Indo-Vin, Inc., Cincinnati, Ohio, and medicine will be shipped postpaid.

THROUGH A Woman's Eyes
By JEAN NEWTON

WAIT—AND SEE

"IF THERE is one word in the dictionary that is invaluable in all the daily affairs of life," writes one of our readers, "it is the word 'wait.' And we might add 'and see'!"

And she proceeds to tell me of the most recent experience of her impulsive sister, in which she lost sleep, strength and a considerable amount of money by "going off the handle," by jumping at the most unfavorable conclusion in an important matter, and immediately acting on it. Not only, says our reader, was the experience a great practical loss, but her sister "lost face" to such an extent that it is doubtful if she can recover her standing in the community. That is all that I am permitted to publish about the matter. But it will serve the purpose our reader desires of making a point of what she calls "the absolutely tragic habit" of not being able to wait and see.

And we are grateful for the suggestion. The importance of being able to wait and see cannot be overestimated.

We have all seen women embarrassed by anger at the act of a friend which subsequently turned out to be entirely innocent. We have seen them wear themselves out in resentment, lose strength and nervous energy, on a hasty conclusion which soon proved to have been entirely unfounded. We have seen them waste time and money and lose "face" through hasty action at such times.

It is amazing how many things that upset us will adjust themselves beautifully if given a little time. Misunderstanding is cleared up, motives clarified, and the necessity to "do something" resolved into thin air, by just stopping to "wait and see."

LOVE SCHOOL NOTES

(Thelma Chappel, Teacher)

Last Tuesday, because of the terrible blizzard, our transportation driver, Mr. Ray Skingley, started after us at 3:00. The road being blocked with drifts of snow, he was unable to get through and had to have Mr. Arthur Skingley come after us with his truck. The children were piled in and covered with a fur robe. They thought it great fun but we may have been snow-bound for sure. We couldn't have school the remainder of the week.

We are glad to be back together again as so many were absent because of bad colds and stormy weather.

The 6th and 7th grades are interested in our new "Citizenship Club," that was organized to have meetings every Wednesday night after school. They chose the following as officers: Floyd Milliken, Pres.; Margaret Kirsch, vice pres.; Clarence Small, secretary, and Leonard Bayn, treasurer. They decided to bring up different topics to discuss at these meetings which would be educational to them.

We are glad that our mid-term exams are over.

One of these days, when it warms up, we are invited by Mr. Williams of the Hardwood school to have a spell-down between the two schools.

We are planning on a Valentine party for Friday afternoon and already a number of Valentines have been secretly hidden in our pretty red and white Valentine box.

DIES IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Grayling friends were shocked upon learning of the tragic death of Vernon Waite, of Tekonsha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Waite, formerly of this city. Mr. Waite, age 33 years, was instantly killed Tuesday of last week, about four miles south of Albion.

He had stalled his automobile in a snowdrift and, carrying his 7 year old son, was walking along the road in an effort to secure aid when he was struck by an auto driven by Dr. R. K. Curry, of Homer, who was accompanying two ambulances carrying accident patients, to a hospital at Albion. A swirling snowstorm made it impossible for the doctor to see him. Relatives believe that when he saw the immediate danger and realized that he did not have time to save himself, Waite must have thrown his son clear of danger. The child was suffering a lame back and told them that his father had "thrown him into the snowbank."

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at Litchfield, and interment was in the Tekonsha cemetery. Surviving are two sons, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Waite, of Tekonsha, and three brothers. Other relatives include two Grayling relatives, an aunt, Mrs. Carl Larson, and an uncle, Clarence VanAmberg. Those attending the funeral from here were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Larson and daughters, Erdine, Aileen and Mrs. Herbert Stephan, and Mr. VanAmberg.

Texas Decorates Grave of Vice President Dallas

MISS MABEL ROOKS, left, and Miss LaVee Kilman, Texas rangerettes, placing the wreath which they brought to Philadelphia by plane from Dallas, Texas, on the grave of George M. Dallas, vice president of the United States under President Polk from 1845 to 1849. Dr. Edward M. Jeffries, director of St. Peter's church, and Mayor Hampton J. Moore of Philadelphia are watching the rangerettes. The ceremony was part of the Texas Centennial celebrations.
